STEWART WARM.

Grills McClanahan
At Oceanic Wharf.

TRUTH TOLD OF THE DEMOCRATS

Republican Speaker Replies to Insults of the "Man who Talks."

A large number of workmen listened at noon yesterday at Oceanic wharf to addresses on the issues of the day by W. C. Achi and T. McCants Stewart and applauded heartily. In his speech, Stewart interpreted by W. C. Achi, Mr. Stewart paid his respects to E. B. McClanahan. Among other things, he said, "I see in this morning's Advertiser that Mr. McClanahan devoted part of his last night's Kakaako speech to me, indulging in the usual Democratic 'ting' at me, and trying to make the point that the Democrats of the South, who are the backbone of his party, would treat Hawaiians different from the way they treat negroes. 'Brother McClanahan should keep cool. It is very evident that he has a bad case; and, therefore, he abuses the attorney on the other side. But 'things' won't go. People want facts and arguments. McClanahan went around the island, beseeching Hawaiians not to join the Republican party, because the Republicans are oppressing the dark-skinned people in the Philippines, and that the Democratic party is in favor of liberty and equal rights and is trying to deliver the Philippines from Republican oppression. 'I met that argument first with an outburst of laughter, because it is so funny; and, secondly, with chunks of solid facts, which aroused Hawaiians, who are a discriminating people, to the point of indignation at McClanahan's dishonest arguments, and to abhorrence of his party and its color-hating principles and practices. Seeing that the tables were turned on him, like the galled jade, he winced at Kakaako and pitched into me personally. 'Well, no matter about me personally. I think I can show an American record far superior to Brother McClanahan's, no matter in what light it is examined. 'McClanahan said that Hawaiians are an educated people; and that negroes are illiterate. Why is that so? Because Republicans kept slavery out of the West in spite of the efforts of Democrats to extend it there, and when Americans came to these islands they were Republicans, and they at once established schools for the education of Hawaiians. I challenge McClanahan to show me one Democrat who took a leading part in EDUCATING HAWAIIANS. The men and the women who carried on the work of education here were Republicans. They were the sons and daughters of men who in the States were against slavery; and Americans who thought like them were BEATEN AND MURDERED in the States by McClanahan's party. Look at the other side. In the South the Democrats were in power. Did they open schools to dark-skinned people? 'No; but they made it a penitentiary offense to teach a colored person to read. McClanahan says negroes are illiterate. He does not tell you that his own party made them so. And, more, they made the poor white workingman illiterate also; and as a result thousands of them could not vote today. If Tillman and his gang did not put into their Constitution the provision that any person can vote (even if he can not read) provided his ancestors could vote in 1850. This lets in illiterate white men whose fathers tried to break up the Union. This is the most infamous attack upon the rights of dark-skinned people in the history of the world. Negroes who can read and write are in a majority in many parts of the South; but the Democrats will not let them vote, because they are Republicans. If the Democrats had extended slavery into California, their slave catchers would have come to these shores, and to avoid slavery, Hawaiians would have been compelled to fight McClanahan's party to the death. 'Instead of Democrats, Republicans came here and educated the people. Look carefully at the matter, and you will find that Democrats are not against negroes only. They are against all dark-skinned people. They oppress and harass the Chinese in the States. They drive them out of business, assault them, destroy their property and make life a burden to them. Democrats believe in the rule of the white man. The Democrats say, we must rule, majority or no majority. The Republicans believe in the rule of the majority, and treat all colors alike. Why, if Mr. McClanahan and Mr. John E. Bush were to go from here to the South to live, McClanahan could go into the Democratic party, but Bush could not; and the reason is this, the Democrats have this rule: 'Any white male citizen 21 years of age may become a member of this Democratic precinct club.' 'The Democratic party is the white man's party and wants nothing to do with the Philippines because the inhabitants of those islands are dark-skinned people. I defy contradiction of this statement, that neither Prince David nor any Hawaiian ally or noble, who has been to the States, has ever been invited by a Southern Dem-

REPUBLICAN RALLY AT PEARL CITY

Enthusiastic Meeting Held in Richmond Grove Last Night.

There was a most enthusiastic Republican rally at Richmond Grove, Pearl City, last night, when almost every resident of the district turned out by the light of the flaring torches to greet the eloquent leaders of the Republican party. A special train left Honolulu at 6:45 p. m. with the following Republicans aboard: Sam Parker, L. L. McCandless, George R. Carter, Judge Kaulikou, Henry Waterhouse, Enoch Johnson, John Lane, W. J. Coelho, Clarence Crabbe, Charles Achi and Frank Archer. The special stopped at stations along the line and picked up everybody who wanted to go with the party. Another special train from Ewa brought a crowd to swell the gathering at Richmond Grove and when the speakers of the evening commenced to address the assemblage there were over five hundred people present—women as well as men. The greatest enthusiasm prevailed and the crowd was most attentive. Torches were plentiful and appropriate decorations were in evidence. Judge Hookano was unanimously elected chairman of the meeting, a volunteer quartet furnished lively music and John Kalama distinguished himself on the accordion. Yellow ribbons, Parker buttons and McKinley and Roosevelt buttons were to be seen on every hand, and interest and enthusiasm was shown to a marked degree. Inasmuch as there are only 28 registered voters in the district, the crowd in attendance was remarkable for its size. W. C. Achi, in speaking to the people, asked how many of them would vote either of the opposition tickets. Immediately came the answer from five hundred throats, "None!"

Frank Archer in his speech demonstrated the fact that the Republican candidates paid taxes on $200,000 worth of property, the Democratic candidates on $20,000 worth, and the Independent candidates on $20,000 worth.

All the leaders spoke and were received with tumultuous applause. Sam Parker, say those who know, is sure of 281 votes in that district out of 282.

The special train with the Republican leaders aboard returned to town about 11 o'clock.

PACIFIC HEIGHTS BRILLIANT SCENE

Electric Lights Turned on for the First Time Last Night.

A trail of fire zigzagging up the slopes of Pacific Heights last evening at 8 o'clock signaled the perfection of the electric power and lighting system which has been established by the promoters of the suburb. In the presence of Chas. S. Desky, who has been at the head of the company, W. C. Weedon and many others interested, the superintendent of the power station started the big fly-wheel on its power generating revolutions. The engines and dynamo worked successfully. There was not a hitch. Finally the power was turned into the trolley wires, which have been strung up on the poles lining the two miles of track which zigzags to the top of the picturesque heights. There were over a hundred incandescent lamps suspended from the trolley poles by iron brackets, and these suddenly flashed into a brightness which attracted the attention of residents in the plains below.

There are two miles of track in readiness for travel. Two cars are now resting on jacks over the track at the little depot near the power house, and require only the motor trucks to make them complete. These arrived on a ship a few days ago and will be taken up to Pacific Heights today. The cars will then make regular trips up and down the boulevard for the benefit of those who care for an outing where the air is fresh and where an almost unparalleled view may be obtained of the leeward side of Oahu.

The power house is located at the foot of Pacific Heights and is a commodious, substantial structure of brick and stone. It furnishes power for the electric railroad and lighting system. The car house and depot is not yet completed.

Healani Dance.

The Healani will give a dance at their boathouse on November 9th, which promises to be an unusually brilliant affair. Tickets may be obtained from Gus Prescott, Guy Gear and Fred West.

The various committees appointed by the Driving Association to arrange details for Saturday's races will report at the Hawaiian Hotel this evening at 7:30 o'clock.

KAKAAKO HEARS.

The Independents
Make a Big Noise.

USUAL ORATORS TALK NONSENSE

Freedom From United States'
Rule Promised by a Wise
Hawaiian.

The Independents held a large mass meeting at Kakaako last night. The speakers were D. Kalaupokalani, Solomon Meheula, Joe Clark, John Emmeluth, J. K. Nakookoo, S. K. Pua, D. Kanuha, R. N. Boyd, J. K. Kaulia and R. W. Wilcox.

The first speaker was D. Kalaupokalani, Jr. He said in part: "I am certain that with such an auspicious meeting we should gain the victory on November 6. Last night the Democrats told you that they are the Home Rule party. The Independents are here before you tonight. According to their own arguments they certainly favor Home Rule, but do not ally yourselves with them but maintain yourselves as Independents. Let us work together, as 'Birds of a feather will always flock together.' The Democrats and Republicans took their platform from ours. These other parties have no motto but the Independent has that motto, 'Equality to all.' The Republicans are wearing the yellow ribbon with the motto of Kamehameha III. If they meant to establish 'righteousness' in this country why did they not have this in their platform. If you vote for the Democrats and the Republicans you will lose your ballot."

MEHEULA BRIEF.

Solomon Meheula spoke next. He likened the Republicans to dogs getting meat in their efforts to educate the Hawaiians to vote the Republican ticket. He went over the events of the last thirteen years. He said:

"Be careful how you vote at the election. If you should vote for the Republicans and Democrats it will show that you do not love your children. They are being educated today, but if you should neglect this right they will not enjoy the same privilege. This is a grave responsibility for every parent here to bear and if we love our country let us vote the Home Rule ticket. The Republicans and Democrats here were the same before annexation, but since then they have split into the separate parties."

HAOLE QUINN SPOUTS.

Chairman Kalimall introduced James Quinn as the "Cannonshot of the Legislature."

Said Quinn: "I know that the Home Rule party is going to win. Why should it win? Because it is the party of the Hawaiians. They have the Hawaiians' interests at heart and represent their own country and no other. But the Democrats and Republicans do not have your interests at heart. If we want this country preserved for the Hawaiians and the haole kama'aina let us vote for the straight Home Rule ticket. I am not going to dwell upon the platform of our party. What I am going to say is this: You know that the Home Rule party will do you justice. Will any other party do it? I think not. What has the Republican party got to offer you? Nothing. They stole this country. They have taken the motto of Kamehameha III and printed it on yellow hat ribbons. I think it ought not to be their motto. They should have had this on the ribbons: 'The nation which stole the country.' As for the Democratic party let me tell you it is all right, but look at the leaders. They are W. A. Kinney, Colburn and McClanahan. They are trying to dupe the Hawaiians to get their votes. They are PAID BY THE FAMILY COMPACT so that they might defeat the Home Rule party and let the Republican party win. There are several Hawaiians as well as haoles who have joined those parties. They do not know what they are doing and they do not know the principles. I know you are not going to vote the Republican ticket. Why did not the Democrats join with the Home Rule party. It is because those leaders are paid by the Family Compact to split the Home Rule party. You know that it was John F. Colburn and Samuel Parker who sold this country. COLBURN IS A TRAITOR and if it had not been for him we would not have lost our country. Remember Colburn was always a P. G. He only came to the Queen just before she was dethroned and he deceived her, by claiming that he would promulgate a new constitution and when he got in power, he went to the missionaries and told them he wanted protection because the Queen wanted to promulgate a new constitution. That is the kind of man John Colburn is. Now he has joined the Democratic party. That party will

POLLS WILL BE OPEN AS LONG AS VOTERS APPEAR

ALL VOTERS IN HAWAII will have the opportunity to cast their ballots. It had been figured out that with the number of voters registered in certain precincts in Honolulu and with the polls only open until 5 p. m. all could not vote. It was anticipated that the natural desire of all citizens to exercise their rights might result in some football tactics at the polls.

Secretary of the Territory Cooper has set all these fears at rest. He said yesterday: "I have decided to instruct the inspectors that if, at 5 o'clock, any qualified voter presents himself the polls shall be kept open until he has had the opportunity of voting, and so continue open so long as there are electors presenting themselves to vote."

"While the Hawaiian election law fixing the closing of the polls at 5 o'clock has been re-enacted in the Organic Act, I consider the more sweeping provision of the Organic Act securing the rights of franchise to those qualified by authority of this plan."

Secretary Cooper referred to the law which does not allow the arrest of a voter on election day except for a felony or breach of the peace, and which says every elector has the right to cast his vote.
